

WELA program for Victorian Local Government supported by the Northern Alliance for Greenhouse Action

Transcript of Application Form

This document is a transcript of the online application form, to help you get an overview of all the application questions.

We understand some people may have trouble accessing the typeform application at work because of workplace firewalls. If this is the case, please make sure to apply from a personal computer at home.

If you still have access issues when applying online, please contact info@wela.org.au.

Are you ready to bring your unique leadership approach to the biggest environmental challenges we face?

Designed by and for women and gender-diverse people working for and committed to our environment, the WELA Program for Victorian Local Government (VLG) is a new opportunity based on the successful WELA National Leadership program and developed in partnership with NAGA.

The WELA program for VLG supported by the NAGA will bring together 18 women for a 3 day, 3 night leadership development program in Victoria from May 23th to 26th 2023.

The deadline for applications is Sunday 4th December 2022.

You can find more information on our website <https://wela.org.au/program-vlg/>

Instructions for applicants

You will need to allow 10-15 minutes to complete.

You can start to fill in the application, close it, and then return later and your answers will still be there. You need to be on the same browser and device (and not in Incognito or Private browsing mode). Your answers will be kept safely in your browser's local storage for 15 days.

All information entered isn't assessed and collated until application deadline Sunday 4th December 2022

What is your current role in the sector?

<short answer>

WELA aims to gather a cohort across age, location, roles, identities and backgrounds. Please tick as many identities as you resonate with. This list is by no means exhaustive, and we are still on our path towards intersectionality so please feel free to leave us a note if you haven't recognised yourself here.

- Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander
- Person with a Disability
- Lesbian, bisexual or queer
- Person of colour
- Culturally and linguistically diverse
- Working class
- Trans*, intersex, non-binary or other gender identity
- Parent
- Carer
- "OTHER" box

One of the strengths of WELA is the opportunity for intergenerational dialogue and learning. Please let us know your age so we can ensure a mix of ages in the cohort.
